PRESS RELEASE

CHARITABLE FOUNDATION OF THE ENERGY BAR ASSOCIATION
PLEDGES $25,000 FOR HURRICANE RELIEF

The Charitable Foundation of the Energy Bar Association (“CFEBA”) took immediate action today in response to the devastation caused by Hurricane Katrina and pledged $25,000 for relief to the south central region of the country that was stricken by the hurricane. Such funds will be designated for energy-related purposes in a region that has experienced major disruptions of utility service and other hardships.

The CFEBA is non-profit organization formed in 2002 under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Its mission is to engage in energy-related and general charitable activities through the financial contributions and volunteer services provided by members of the Energy Bar Association and others. The CFEBA is the charitable arm of the Energy Bar Association, which is headquartered in Washington, D.C. and has more than 2,300 energy lawyer and energy professional members.
